The Domestic Violence Center of Chester County

ANNUAL REPORT 2017-2018

The background of the image shows a close-up of water with several concentric ripples spreading outwards from a central point, creating a soft, textured effect. The lighting is even, highlighting the subtle curves of the water's surface.

"Just as ripples spread out when a pebble is dropped into water, the actions of individuals can have far-reaching effects."

-Dalai Lama

IT ALL STARTS WITH ONE

One Vision

The vision of the Domestic Violence Center of Chester County is to eliminate Domestic Violence in Chester County.

The mission of the Domestic Violence Center of Chester County is to provide intervention, education, outreach, advocacy, and programs to prevent, reduce, and remedy Domestic Violence in Chester County.

One Mission

One Philosophy

We believe that all people and children are entitled to a safe environment free from violence. We recognize that every person is at risk, and we are committed to working collectively and cooperatively to end violence against women, men, and children in our community. We believe that each person has the ability and right to control their own life. We are committed to empowerment-based support services which affirm a person's competence to make decisions. We believe we must take an active role in increasing public awareness that domestic violence is a crime and in advocating systems change, in order to reduce tolerance for domestic violence in our community.

Founded in 1976, DVCCC is the only organization in Chester County providing services exclusively for victims of domestic violence and their children and is the sole agency under contract from the Pennsylvania Department of Human Services to do so. DVCCC began as the YWCA Women's Resource Center (WRC) to serve as an information and referral source for Chester County women. Once this service became known, it started receiving a flood of calls from women in situations of domestic violence. The directors of WRC, finding no organization in the area in which the victims could be referred, reorganized the organization as the Domestic Violence Center of Chester County, focusing on domestic violence intervention and prevention.

One History

DVCCC Services

DVCCC provides services to victims of domestic abuse and their dependent children throughout Chester County. We offer services at our main site and at our four outreach locations in Kennett Square, Coatesville, Oxford, and Phoenixville. Our main office, located at a confidential address to assure client safety and privacy, is accessible 24 hours a day to serve victims and residents. Our outreach centers do not offer shelter facilities and their addresses are published. All services are free and confidential. Services include: 24 hour hotline, Emergency/Safe House Shelter, Transitional Housing Options, Trauma-Informed Individual & Group Counseling, Children's Services, Relocation Assistance, Legal Counseling & Representation, Community Education and Training, Volunteer/Intern Education.

Non-Discrimination Statement

We are committed to an equal program service and equal employment opportunities. The Domestic Violence Center of Chester County's program services and employment are designed to prohibit discrimination on the basis of race, gender, color, creed, age, national origin, sexual identity, sexual orientation, disability, economic, social, or marital status or political or religious beliefs.

A MESSAGE FROM OUR LEADERSHIP

"To know even one life has breathed easier because you have lived. This is to have succeeded."

- Ralph Waldo Emerson

Imagine a place where every victim survivor of domestic violence had safety and support – from family, friends, neighbors, colleagues – to be supported and not blamed; where perpetrators were held accountable for the family violence; where we would come together as ONE to be a part of the solution to this horrendous crime. Since 1976, thanks to your support, the Domestic Violence Center of Chester County has been advocating to make this vision a reality in our community.

"I was so relieved when my son opened the door and there stood two police officers. One took my husband of twenty years out of our family home, and the other officer asked me a series of questions regarding safety, such as: 'do you fear your husband?' The officer then called the DVCCC hotline and I spoke with a caring, friendly person. With the realization that my children and I would never be safe in our home again, we were transported to DVCCC's safe house where we were welcomed with open arms. Along with clothing and food we were provided with counseling and legal support. DVCCC helped me to regain my sense of self-worth."

- (Name withheld due to confidentiality.)

ONE call to the DVCCC hotline made all the difference in the world to this survivor and her children.

Community support helps DVCCC to provide services such as a 24-hour hotline, emergency shelter/safe house, transitional and independent housing, individual and group counseling, legal representation and advocacy, services for children, and public education and training. This year we expanded the number of our independent housing units from 13 to 17 units and enhanced our evidence-based practices, such as the Lethality Assessment Program and Coaching Boys Into Men. All of this has been made possible through your generosity.

We are grateful to you and your continued partnership.

With heartfelt thanks,

Dolly Wideman-Scott, Ed.D., CEO

Matthew Holliday, Board President

SURVIVOR STORIES

"How can you appreciate the rainbow without a little rain? For the past few years, I have overcome more barriers than I probably will in my adulthood. Domestic violence, homelessness and financial difficulties, segregation from my peers and teammates are all examples of the obstacles I encountered and are still confronting today. As an eighth grade student, having been through so much in the past and present, I can truly say I want the rainbow. Financial struggles have been rough to overcome, because as a teenager the desire to 'fit in' is so influential. Complications and destruction to my house has caused the loss of my home, which I have lived in for fourteen years. Fortunately, DVCCC has helped me alleviate stress from my situation and provided my mother and me with a safe place to stay as well."

One Rainbow

"No one tried to force me into any kind of decision. I was allowed to work out for myself what is best for my unborn child and me. I can't thank you enough for helping me travel to a place where my child and I will be supported emotionally, psychologically, and physically. It is important to me that my child is brought into this world in a warm, safe, nurturing environment. He or she will be surrounded by people that will love him or her from the moment of birth. I will never forget that you made that possible. This is an amazing agency, and I only wish it were bigger to help and support more women."

One New Mother

"I took my three boys and left him. I had no money, no job, no credit cards, and no place to call home. I was terrified. We went to live with my parents temporarily while I searched for help and support. Fortunately, we found the DVCCC. The 24-hour support was priceless during this ongoing ordeal. Many times the kids and I were panicked and afraid, and I would call DVCCC when I didn't know who else to call. Each and every person I spoke with calmly listened and responded with kindness and empathy which I found to be a real source of comfort during times of chaos in our lives. It is with immense and heartfelt gratitude I thank DVCCC who has done so much for me and others in our time of dire need."

ONE BEDROOM HOUSING PROGRAMS

Housing Expansion

PROPOSED FIRST FLOOR

PROPOSED SECOND FLOOR

In April 2018, DVCCC completed our housing expansion, opening four brand new one bedroom apartments for survivors of Domestic Violence

The need for safe housing and financial ability to maintain safe housing are two of the most pressing concerns among those who are planning to, or have recently left abusive partners (1).

Housing Program Achievements

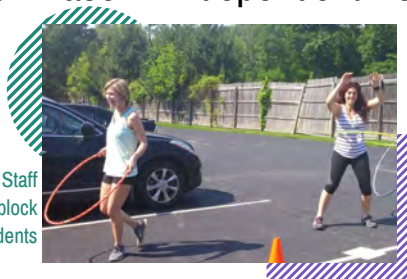

42 adults and 38 children received Emergency Shelter services.

9 adults and 16 children received Bridge Transitional Shelter services.

9 adults and 24 children received Phase IV Independent Housing services.

Housing Staff hosted a block party for residents

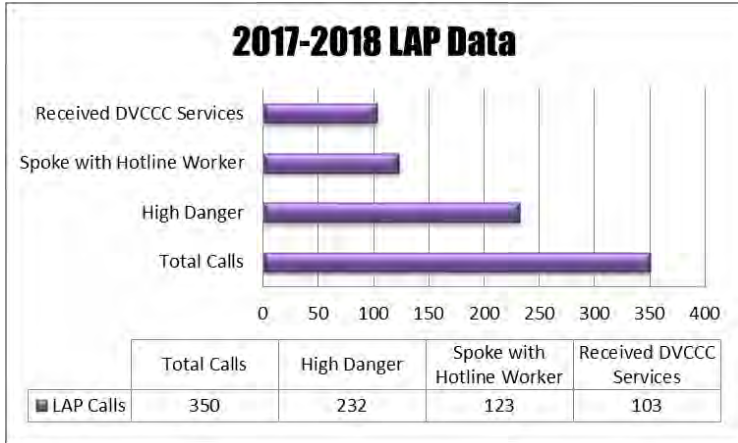

This year, DVCCC received a grant, in partnership with Open Hearth, Inc., to provide financial literacy and support services to our survivors.

ONE TEAM

PUBLIC EDUCATION PROGRAMS

Lethality Assessment Program

38 of 42 Chester County municipal police departments are trained in LAP

With the Lethality Assessment Program (LAP), officers responding to the scene of a domestic disturbance use a brief, 11-question risk assessment to identify victims in high danger and connect them, on the scene, with a DVCCC advocate. LAP is only successful due to the teamwork between DVCCC, the Chester County District Attorney's Office, and local law enforcement.

Coaching Boys Into Men

Approximately 175 Athletes on 3 teams in Chester County participated in CBIM

Coaching Boys Into Men (CBIM) is an evidence-based program, based on the tenants of Respect, Integrity, and Nonviolence, that trains coaches of high school athletic teams to use their position as a role model for young men to discuss important social issues with their athletes.

CBIM began an expansion this year after DVCCC received a grant, in partnership with PCADV, from the Centers for Disease Control to grow CBIM into a full-time initiative.

Additional Public Education Program Achievements

148 education programs were provided to approximately 7,480 people.

These presentations included 71 teen dating Violence presentations to high schools and youth groups as well as trainings for health care and law enforcement personnel, clubs and businesses, and tables at health, community, and volunteer fairs. These outreach efforts would be lost without the assistance from DVCCC volunteers who provided over 3,200 hours of service.

ONE STUDENT

COMMUNITY YOUTH SUPPORT

Emily Allen, of Coatesville Area Senior High School, was the winner of our second annual student art competition, pictured here with her teacher, Carolyn Worth.

Each year, artists from high schools across the county come together to raise awareness through their works of art. The winning piece is featured on the invitation to DVCCC's annual fundraising event.

When students come together, amazing things happen.
DVCCC is deeply grateful to the youth in Chester County who support our mission.

42nd Annual Fundraising Event All That's Purple: Rise Up

On March 24, 2018, DVCCC held our annual fundraiser with the theme, "Rise Up", focused on a survivor's ability to overcome obstacles and find a safe, empowered life beyond abuse.
